CHURCH WORKERS CODE OF CONDUCTS

The Lord Jesus calls us the light of the world, Matt. 5:14-16, the salt of the earth, Matt. 5:13; and the ambassadors of Christ, John 20:21. In order to effectively and correctly discharge our responsibilities to God and His church every worker should observe the following code of conduct:

He/she must be submissive to constituted authorities in the Mission, 1Pet. 5:5; 1 Corinth.16:16; Heb. 13:17 e.g.

1. When traveling he/she should inform the Pastor, II Kings 6:2.
2. Should be ready to attend all meetings and go wherever he/she is sent,
3. Be absolutely obedient to Pastor/ Assistant Pastors when they give orders that do not contradict the Bible, 1 Pet. 5:5.
4. Be an example to the congregation in submitting to the doctrine of the church, Titus 2:7; 1 Tim. 4:12; 1 Tim. 4:6; Titus 1:9.
5. Be an example to the congregation in spending and being spent for God, 11 Cor. 12:15; Gal. 2:20.
6. Hygienic in all dispositions, Isaiah 52:11.
7. Well dressed in accordance with the scriptures. Where there is any doubt, must be willing to give the benefits of the doubt to the Lord, I Pet. 3:1-4, I Tim. 2:9, Isa. 3:16-26.
8. Someone who will be a worthy ambassador of both Christ and his church such that if he/she be transferred from his/her working place to a town/village where there is no branch of this church,

- he/she will promptly start one. Acts 8:4; Acts 11:19.
9. Only too happy to attend all-night vigils and/or organize such in his/her home, Lk, 6:12; Acts 16:25.
 10. Punctual at all Local, Area, State or National Meetings, Heb. 10:25.
 11. Walking, worshipping and growing in the spirit constantly, Gal. 5:16; John 4:23-24, Psa. 117:12; Col. 3:16.
 12. Someone who enjoys a life of Holiness and Sanctifications, living right in the open and in secret, and dwelling in love, 2 Pet. 3:18; 2 Tim. 3:14-17; Eph. 5:25-27, Matt. 5:13-16, Heb. 12:14, I Tim. 3:2.
 13. Ready always to do good works, Titus 2:14, Gal. 6:10.
 14. Ever ready to protect the good name of the church, I Tim. 3:7; Titus 1:10-13.

CHURCH DISCIPLINE AMONG WORKERS

1. Where there is love, there must be discipline. Hebrews 12:6; Rev. 3:19. Consequently, in this Mission, if any worker sins or does anything that his/her Pastor consider inimical to the progress or good image of this church he or she will receive instant and adequate discipline. And if the worker be a Pastor he will receive the same discipline from the his superior. Such discipline which will be proportional to the offence, range from an open rebuke among fellow workers, suspension from workers meetings for a period of time to total dismissal from workers cadre.
2. During period of discipline or suspension from workers' meeting the worker under discipline must attend all the church services regularly, sitting wherever the Pastor shall appoint, Hebrews 12:5-8; Prov. 3:11-12.
3. If a worker shows genuine repentance, he/she may be pardoned before the period specified for the suspension.
4. If a worker shows no genuine repentance, his/her period of suspension must be automatically extended. If after an extension of the suspension period there is still no repentance, such a worker may be recommended to the General Overseer, through the Area Pastor, for dismissal from workers' cadre.

WORKERS' SUNDAY ACTIVITIES

The workers are the people who are the first to come to the church on Sunday morning. For Example they would have been there an hour before others come. In the evening they also come early before the congregation. As far as workers are concerned, the whole Sunday belongs to Jesus Christ.

When they finish their morning prayers they must go on house to house witnessing or follow-up in order to invite people to the church. After the service, just as others go home, they are to come back to the church for workers meeting. It is compulsory they attend evening services.

CHURCH HIERARCHY

There is order in heaven. We have God the Father, God the son and God the Holy Spirit. Though equal but submitting to each other. As it is in heaven so also it is here on earth 1 Cor. 15:41. In the Tree of Life International Churches, Jesus is the Head of the Church visible and invisible and Tree of Life International Churches belongs to Him. Under Jesus we have have the General Overseer who is the spiritual head, followed by the Deputy General Overseer, Their wives, The Directors/Regional Coordinators / Regional Secretaries, The provincial Pastors, The Assistant Provincial Pastors/Assistant Area Pastors, Pastors, Assistants Pastors, Deacons/Deaconesses, Unordained Ministers, Workers, Workers-in-training. Baptized members,saved unbaptized members, New comers, yet to be saved.

SPIRITUAL APPOINTMENT AND PROMOTION

New people in the Church are regarded as Newcomers. As they develop spiritually, they begin to climb the hierarchical ladder, from the bottom. That is, New comers move to unbaptized members, to baptized members who become workers in training, then full-fledged workers. It is from amongst the workers that Deacons, Deaconesses and Pastors are chosen.

CONCLUSION

Since no one ever becomes a Pastor in this Mission without having having been proven to be called of God and committed to the mission, it follows therefore that becoming a worker is the first step in the line of spiritual promotions in this Mission. It is therefore a great honour and privilege to be invited to join the workers cadre.

If you are willing to abide by all that had been written above, kindly sign copies of this pamphlet, affixing your passport photographs in the appropriate place and submit them through your Pastor to your Area Pastor.

May the Lord strenghten and uphold you as you seek to serve Him. Amen
